
ENVIRONMENTAL INJUSTICE

The Virginia School for the Deaf, Blind & Multi-Disabled

SOREN FRENCH, DR. JOHNNY FINN & REV. JOHN KENNEY

WHAT IS ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE?

THE HISTORY

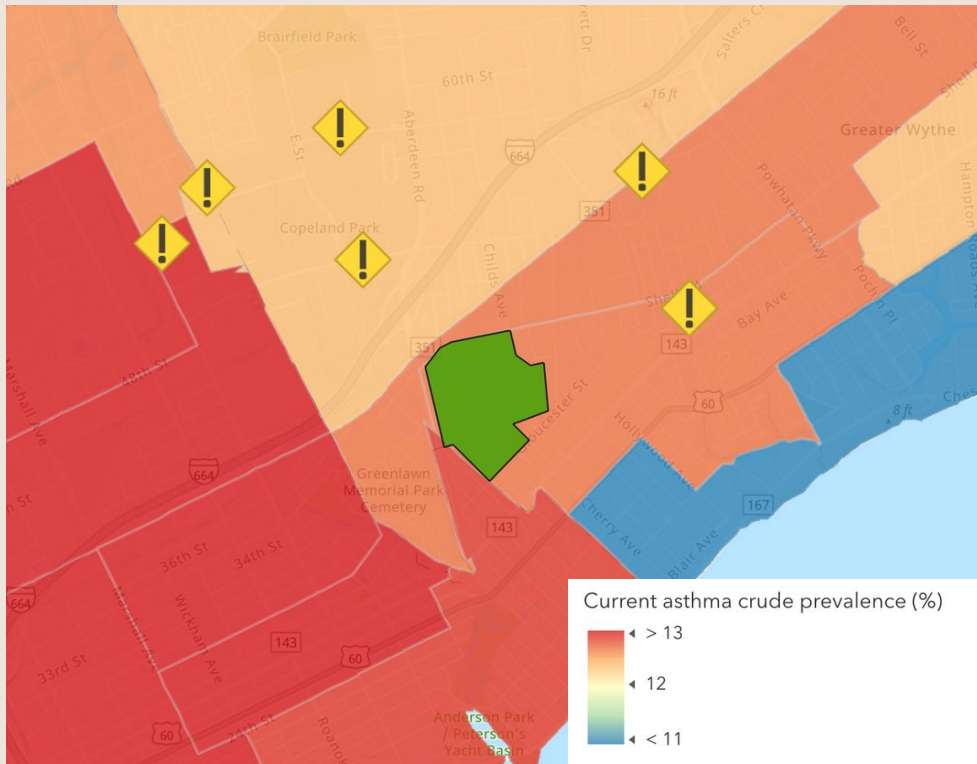

VIRGINIA STATE SCHOOL FOR COLORED DEAF AND BLIND, NEWPORT NEWS, VA.

WHAT HAPPENED?

THE EFFECTS

WHAT COULD HAVE BEEN & NEXT STEPS

"We had this really large, spacious site that they could have you used for housing, and said they chose to use it as an industrial, you know, a warehouse operation."

Nancy Williams, Local Resident

"It could have been a golden opportunity to create a rich campus Museum, in addition to a rich way to resurrect different educational initiatives on their campus for today's 21st-century students."

Dr. Colita Fairfax, Social Work Professor at Norfolk State University

"What we should do next is we have to hold the city accountable. We have to continue to hold them accountable."

Aaron Weaver, Local Resident

"I would like to see the city keep some of his promises."

Bob Smith, Local Resident